FLINT INK CORPORATION APPOINTS
BROADFORD & MALONEY INC.
AS ITS PUBLIC RELATIONS AGENCY

ANN ARBOR, MI, September 7, 2005 — Flint Ink Corporation has announced the appointment of Broadford & Maloney Inc. (BMI), the nation's leading organization serving the graphic arts and related high-technology industries, as its agency of record for public relations and marketing communications.

Rita Conrad, vice president of Corporate Communications of Flint Ink Corporation, noted, "We've chosen to work with Broadford & Maloney due to its broad experience and exceptionally strong track record of communications success in the graphics industry. We're looking forward to working with the agency as Flint Ink enters a new era of worldwide growth and opportunities to provide our customers with many more exciting, innovative technologies and products.

Martin Maloney, chairman of Broadford & Maloney, commented, "We're very pleased to have this opportunity to join Flint Ink's communications team at this important juncture in the company's history of leadership. Flint Ink's ongoing research and development has provided many of the industry's most valuable advances in quality and productivity. We're looking forward to supporting Flint Ink's introduction of new technologies, products and services that will open still more avenues for growth."
